I. INTRODUCTION

The Brazos Central Appraisal District (BCAD) has prepared and published this report to provide our citizens and taxpayers with recap of the District's achievements and results.

BCAD is a political subdivision of the State of Texas created effective January 1, 1980. The provisions of the Texas Tax Code govern the legal, statutory, and administrative requirements of the BCAD. The Tax Code and Tax Rules are administered by the Comptroller of Public accounts through the Property Tax Assistance Division.

A nine-member board of directors, appointed by the taxing units with voting entitlement within the boundaries of Brazos County, constitutes the CAD's governing body. The Executive Director/Chief Appraiser, appointed by the board of directors, in the chief administrator and chief executive officer of the BCAD.

BCAD is responsible for local property tax appraisal and exemption administration for thirteen (13) jurisdictions or taxing units in the county. Each taxing unit, such as the county, city, school district, municipal utility district, etc., sets its own tax rate to generate revenue to pay for such things as police and fire protection, public schools, road and street maintenance, courts, water and sewer systems, and other public services. BCAD appraisals allocate the year's tax burden on the basis of each taxable property's January 1st market value. We also determine eligibility for various types of property tax exemptions such as those for homeowners, the elderly, disabled veterans, and charitable and religious organizations.

BCAD appraises all taxable property at its "market value" as of January 1st except as otherwise provided by the Tax Code. Under the tax code, "market value" means the price at which a property would transfer for cash or its equivalent under prevailing market conditions if:

- Exposed for sale in the open market with a reasonable time for the seller to find a purchaser;
- Both the seller and the buyer know of all the uses and purposes to which the property is adapted and for which it is capable of being used and of the enforceable restrictions on its use, and;
- Both the seller and buyer seek to maximize their gains and neither is in the position to take advantage of the exigencies of the other.

BCAD uses specific information about each property to calculate the appraised value of real estate. We compare that information with data for similar properties, and with recent market data using computer-assisted appraisal programs, and recognized appraisal methods and techniques. BCAD follows the standards of the International Association of Assessing Officers (IAAO) regarding its mass appraisal practices and procedures, and subscribes to the standards promulgated by the Appraisal Foundation known as the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) to the extent they are applicable. In cases where the CAD contracts for professional valuation services, the contract that is entered into by each appraisal firm requires adherence to similar professional standards.

II. BCAD's Budget and Operations Data

The financial results of the Brazos Central Appraisal District reflect the focus on conservative fiscal stewardship and utilization of financial and personnel resources. The financial budget must be presented to the Board of Directors and the participating entities by June 15th of every year. The Board of Directors holds at least one public hearing by September to receive input on the proposed budget which must be adopted by September 15th.

The financial budget outlines the goals, objectives, and programs to be accomplished, operating and maintenance expenditures by category, personnel breakdown with staffing levels and salary ranges and a detailed schedule of capitalized equipment to be purchased. Following monthly budget meetings, the Board of Directors is required to approve the budget by September 15th. The financial statements are audited annually by a Certified Public Accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The Board of Directors reviews the budget with Brazos Central Appraisal District Administration for any revisions or recommendations.

The Total Operating Budget for 2015 was $2,787,881 which represents a 2.27% increase over the 2014 fiscal year. The chart below shows the budget allocation by Personal Services, Supplies and Administrative Expenses, Contractual Expenses and Capital Expenses. A copy of the 2015 budget a BCAD's organizational chart can be found in the addenda of this report.

III. NEW LEGISLATION

The Texas legislature meets biannually in odd numbered years. In 2015, there were many bills that affected the citizens of Brazos County. The next regular session will be in 2017. As always there will be several changes to the Tax Code that will impact Appraisal Districts but it is difficult to predict what will come out of the 2017 legislative session.

The Lt. Governor has appointed a select committee, officially named the Senate Select Committee on Property Tax Reform and Relief. The committee charges are: Study the property tax process, including the appraisal system, and recommend ways to promote transparency, simplicity, and accountability by all taxing entities. Examine and develop options to further reduce the tax burden on property owners.

The committee will be conducting public hearings across the state over the next several months asking for testimony from people within the industry and the public.

The following list contains a short list of issues they plan to address in 2017:

- Additional or improved training for ARB
- Revenue Caps
- Doing away with the new value deduction in the effective tax rate calculation
- Removing the property tax on Business Personal Property or inventory
- Creation of a separate agency to oversee property taxes such as the State Property Tax Board
- Changes to the 25.19 notice
- Greater separation of the ARB from CAD's
- Elimination of taxing unit challenges

VII. EXEMPTIONS

BCAD works very diligently to insure that exemptions are applied according to the Texas Property Tax Code. There are no fees attached to applying for exemptions and our staff is available to assist property owners with their applications. The law mandates some exemptions and allows certain entities to increase those exemptions or in some cases, not offer the exemption at all. The information below details exemption details for Brazos County, followed by a chart summarizing the exemptions by entity.

IX. HEARINGS AND APPEALS

Each year BCAD mails out Notices of Appraised Value to property owners. Property owners can appeal those values without charge either electronically or in person. They may meet with an appraiser to resolve the difference in opinion of value or they may have a hearing with the Appraisal Review Board (ARB). The ARB Board is made up from of citizens of the County, selected by the Local Administrative Judge to serve a two-year term to hear protests by property owners. During the 2015 protest and hearing cycle 8,403 protests were filed and an additional 4,162 inquiries were filed.

X. RATIO STUDY STATISTICAL DEFINITIONS

A ratio study is a study of the relationship between appraised or assessed values and market values. It is the primary tool for measuring mass appraisal performance. The ratios are formed by dividing appraised values by sales price. Of common interest in ratio studies are the level and uniformity of the appraisals or assessments.

Level of appraisal is measured by one of three measures of central tendency:

- a. Median: the middle ratio when ratios are arrayed in order of magnitude
- b. Mean: The average ratio, found by summing the ratios and dividing by the number of ratios.
- c. Weighted mean: found by dividing the sum of all appraised values by the sum of all sales prices.

Uniformity is measured within groups and among groups of properties. It is measured by comparing measures of appraisal level calculated for each group. It is measured by one of six measures:

- a. Range: the difference between the lowest and highest ratios
- b. Average Absolute Deviation: the average difference between each ratio and the median ratio.
- c. Coefficient of Dispersion (COD): the average absolute deviation divided by the median ratio times 100.
- d. Standard Deviation: A statistic calculated by subtracting the mean from each value, squaring the remainders, adding these squares, dividing by the sample size less 1, and taking the square root of the result.
- e. Coefficient of Variation (COV): the standard deviation expressed as a percentage
- f. Price-related differential (PRD): a statistic for measuring assessment regressivity or progressivity and calculated by dividing the mean by the weighted mean.

XI. NEIGHBORHOOD RATIO STUDIES

BCAD also reviewed ratios in neighborhoods. The analyst reviewed the sales ratios of all neighborhoods that have appropriate number sales. For neighborhoods that fell outside tolerances, the analyst created a neighborhood profile that allowed identification of outliers. Such sales are trimmed so that the remaining sales can be analyzed to determine if a mass adjustment to BCAD market values are needed. This adjustment typically resolves issues with appraisal level and uniformity.

There are three statistics that are reviewed in this process:

1. The weighted mean ratio is the value weighted average of the ratios in which the weights are proportional to the sales prices. It gives equal weight to each dollar of value in the sample as opposed to the median or the mean which gives equal weight to each parcel. The weighted mean should be between 97 and 103.

2. The coefficient of dispersion measures uniformity. It measures the average percent deviation of the ratios from the median. It does not depend on an assumption that the ratios are evenly distributed. Generally more than half the ratios fall within one COD of the median. The COD should be between 5 and 15 for single family residences.
3. The price related differential should fall between 95 and 105. This indicates how closely relate lower value homes are to the higher valued homes. Lower valued homes are most typically closer to 100 than higher valued homes because there are fewer higher valued home/sales.

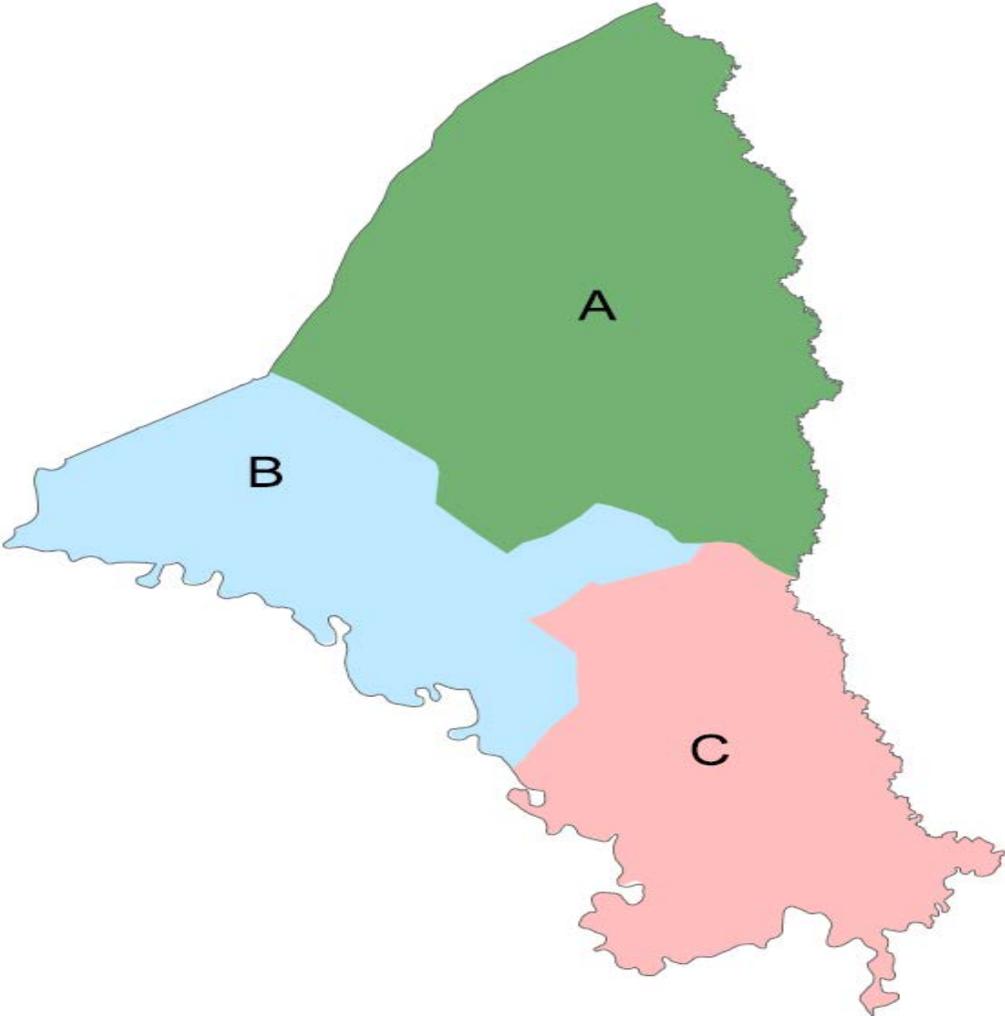

XII. SUMMARY

BCAD is dedicated to continually improve our service to property owners and our community. We network with community leaders to stay abreast with the issues of the day and coming changes in legislation. We monitor changes in legislation from timely implementation and provide our property owners with information on how these changes will affect them. We provide speakers to community organizations and groups on request, without charge to address topics of concerns as well as maintaining our accessibility to the media. We also provide information on our website to educate and assist property owners.
